THE SNOWS OF THE NILE.

DUKE OF THE ABRUZZI'S EXPLORATIONS IN AFRICA-

A distinguished gathwing, including the King and the Prizes of Waldh was present at the Queen's Hall, London, on Saturday work, when the Dake of the Abricai latored before the Royal Geographical Society on 'The Snows of the Ni's.'' King Edward had previously entartained the royal explorer at dinner at Bockingham Palace. At the command of his M jesty, Sir George Taubana Goldis, the head of the Ryal Geo-graphical Society, introduced the lactorer. He took coexiston to say that, althrough his Majesty had frequent'y attended the meeting: if their society when Prince of Wales during the 40 years he had been vice parton, and thorigh the late Queen had been parton during her long and glorions reign, this was the first time they had ever been knowned at a meeting by the heavened the meeting by the
